EAGLE CLAW SHAPPELL CC MARINA MARCH MADNESS 2019

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

MARINA MARCH MADNESS: The Colorado Classic is a series of three ice fishing tournaments. You can be in one , two or all three. If you are in all three points are earned for trophies and final grand prize. $5.00 from each entry goes to the final money prize. Last year we changed formats because of ice conditions. In years past all fishing was done at the north Shore Marina with 3 separate fishing sets. Last year we allowed fishing anywhere and basically had three separate contests where a team could choose where to weigh in their fish. No weights are disclosed during the weigh in process. A team can win multiple contests and places with cash paid for each. Team count determines payout amounts. There were 10 more teams than last year and payouts were increased accordingly. Most teams liked the format last year so we tried it again. No determination has been made on next years contest and we may very well go back to the old format. Current format makes weigh in process very difficult.

Total Teams: 76

BIG FISH POT: 54 @ $25.00 100% Payout $1,350.00. Optional side contest. BFP is decided by a random draw of the six winners of first place EDA and Pro Division combined. The object of the game in March Madness is to get a chip in the draw. That means you must win at least one first place and be paid into BFP to qualify. The biggest fish of the day does not always win. There were no changes in this format and it has been like this for 17 years. P13 caught the biggest fish of the day and had a total of three chips in but lost on the draw. To say the least as first time participants they felt robbed. But that's has it goes in March Madness. We have tried to develop a contest series that spreads the money around giving as many teams as possible as chance to win money and we believe we have succeeded in our efforts. Team 33 certainly did not object to the format. The father and son team of Commerford and Commerford were on cloud 9 for days after according to Cole Commerford.

EAGLE CLAW SHAPPELL CC MARINA MARCH MADNESS 2018

MARINA MARCH MADNESS: Conditions had us change the format this year. You could fish anywhere on the lake, ice, shore or float tube/canoe/kayak. There were three fishing contests, There were specific rules for weighing in fish but basically you could choose which contest to weigh your fish in and bonus 25 points if you weighed in a placing fish before 10:00AM. That was significant as three of the teams that did were happy because it made a major difference for them.

Total Teams: 56 EDA 10 PRO Total 66

BFP: 44 Teams @ $25.00 $1,100.00 Random draw from the three biggest fish 100% payout.

The format change was well received and we are likely to keep it this way for the future. Teams with no or low points can score in the Madness and end up with the championship. Both EDA and PRO Division champions kicked but in this event and won the majority of their points by scoring in multiple Madness contests. For the first time ever all EDA and Pro Madness money was won by teams in all three events. Usually March Madness individual players win money and steal points away from CC players.
